FEEDING ORPHANS AT NDUMO

400 of the total number of around 2000 orphans at Ndumo are not registered for social grants. They depend entirely on the Ndumo Orphans Committee for survival. Thanks to ERP (USA) they have been assured of a supply of ePap for the next six months. This picture shows the delivery of the first tonne, last week, with five tonnes to follow.

THE VAALWATER HOSPICE

Dr. Dennis Levy from America kindly took the time to visit the hospice in Vaalwater with a view to providing volunteer medical support services for ERP projects, dedicated to the health sector. The Vaalwater hospice was recently forced to close down due to lack of funding. Thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor, funding was sourced for two months – until the end of November by which time it is hoped that additional essential funding will be raised.

SEIKOKOTHOLOLO OLD AGE HOME

Thanks to the South African Epi-Use Talent Management Team and the funds they raised for Mandela Day which previously enabled us to assist the old age home in the community adjacent to the Dinokeng Game Reserve with crockery utensils, we have utilised the remaining funds to purchase a gas stove and food items to benefit the old age home. This support is greatly appreciated and has a marked effect on the quality of life of this small group of elderly and very underprivileged and underserved people.

DINOKASI CRAFTERS

Thanks to ERP Mercantile who committed to assist the Dinokasi Crafts centre in order to expand their markets through the different ERP channels.

HUMAN-ELEPHANT CONFLICT

The first group of 10 trainee bee keepers at Dinokeng Game Reserve have completed their first phase of training. The plan is to set up a first phase of 200 hives along a perimeter of 8kms to reduce and prevent human-elephant conflict in the area, while, at the same time providing an income for previously unemployed matric graduates.
